

A DAY IN NARVA
FOR KNOW-IT-ALLS

This route is for those who think they know everything about Narva! And for those who are looking for something new.

Start your walk at the Town Hall Square to see it in an utterly new way. It is possible to see Narva's old town in the virtual exhibition in Narva Town Hall. Walk along Rütli Street to the Dark Garden, go down to the river promenade and walk to the panoramic view of two fortresses - the Narva Castle and the Ivangorod Fortress. These are the only fortifications in the world that are only an arrow flight away across the river from each other.

Walk to the Joaorg Recreation Area, where the promenade now continues. Go up to the "Five-krone view" observation deck. Probably you know that one side of Estonian 5-krone banknote featured famous Estonian chess player Paul Keres and the other one - two fortresses. This is exactly that view!

You must be ready to have lunch now, so walk to restaurant M. Chagall located inside Hotel Narva, small and cozy Cafe Bublik on Puškini Street Valge Kõrvits (White Pumpkin) on Lavretsovi Street, or Cafe Muna in Narva College of the University of Tartu.

In the evening, you should definitely go on a nice walk along Puškini Street to Joala Street over the footbridge across the railway. Did you know that one of the first houses with central heating in Estonia was right here in Kreenholm? And that in 1913 the Narva hospital was already equipped with an elevator? Or that the founder of the Kreenholm textile factory, Baron von Knoop, is an ancestor of the President of the European Commission, Ursula von der Leyen? Learn even more interesting facts on the Joala themed tour. Look for signs with QR codes of this exciting free tour with an audioguide.

Those who are looking for an interesting way to spend the evening can go to Narva-Jõesuu on the Caroline riverboat, which departs from the port of Narva twice a day. The boat ride will take a little over an hour. Once you arrive to Narva-Jõesuu, head to restaurant Franzia to share your impressions of an eventful day while enjoying its unforgettable lamprey dishes. You can go back to Narva by shuttle bus, taxi or riverboat.

A DAY IN NARVA FROM NARVA-JÕESUU

In the summer, you are welcome to visit Narva directly from Narva-Jõesuu. You have several options for traveling to Narva and back: you may take the local bus or your own car, but our recommendation is to go by the riverboat Caroline. It departs from Port of Narva-Jõesuu twice a day.

You will arrive at Narva river port, right where the river promenade starts. If you want to have lunch right away, we recommend the riverside Bar Ro-Ro.

You have other options too:

1 Take a walk on our promenade, you will also meet the locals there. Find one special lion, enjoy the view of the two fortresses, Narva and Ivangorod, which are only an arrow flight away from each other. Enjoy the beauty of Joaorg and go up to the "Five-krone view" observation deck.

By now, you definitely deserve a good lunch, whether it is in the restaurant M. Chagall, our small cafe Bublik on Puškini Street, the bright cafe Valge Kõrvits (White Pumpkin) on Lavretsovi Street or cafe Muna in Narva College.

In the evening the riverboat Caroline departs for Narva-Jõesuu. The ride lasts a little over an hour. Enjoy the amazing view of the Narva River's delta. Having arrived to Narva-Jõesuu, you can go directly to restaurant Franzia to share your impressions of an eventful day while enjoying its unforgettable lamprey dishes.

ROUTE

- 1 Narva river port → Bar Ro-Ro → River promenade → Joaorg → "Five-krone view" → restaurant M. Chagall or cafe Bublik or White Pumpkin or Muna
- 2 Narva river port → River promenade → Joaorg → Narva castle → Town Hall Square → Dark Garden → River Promenade → Narva river port

A DAY IN NARVA FOR A WALKER

We invite you to take a walk in Narva, with at least 15,000 steps guaranteed. We start and finish at Peetri Square.

Start your walk from Peetri Square to Town Hall Square, where the new city square and the renovated town hall await. What an amazing sight! Go along Rütli Street and walk on the upper promenade. The first photo to be taken is by the fountain in the Dark Garden, which has a similar predecessor from the 19th century. It is the spot where most of Narva's family photos are taken. The next photo is a view of the two fortresses. From there, go down Mayor Hahn's steps.

Walk north and see what is going on in the port. Walk back, enjoy the view of the two fortresses, and go to Joaorg recreation area, where the promenade was recently extended. Go up to the "Five-krone view" observation deck. Probably you know that one side of Estonian 5-krone banknote featured famous Estonian chess player Paul Keres and the other one - two fortresses. This is exactly that view! Admire Narva's largest churches, the Alexander's Cathedral and the Resurrection of Christ Orthodox Cathedral.

You have already completed at least 6,000 steps and now it is time for lunch. We recommend Alex Cafe in the building of the former secret military factory "Baltijets".

In the afternoon, take a walk over the pedestrian bridge between Puškini and Joala streets to Kreenholm. Did you know that one of the first (although not the very first) houses with central heating in Estonia was right here in Kreenholm?

And that in 1913 the Narva hospital was already equipped with an elevator? Or that the founder of the Kreenholm textile factory, Baron von Knoop, is an ancestor of the President of the European Commission, Ursula von der Leyen? Learn even more interesting facts on the Joala themed tour. Look for signs with QR codes of this exciting free tour with an audioguide.

You have two options at the end of Joala Street. Either keep walking to Port of Kulgu and admire the views of the Narva reservoir, the ash mountains, or "Narva Venice," or return back to Narva, again over the footbridge. Did you know that in fact, about 100 years ago, Narva and Kreenholm were separate cities?

In Kulgu you will have completed at least 10,000 steps. Congratulations! You can call a taxi to pick you up. If you return directly from Kreenholm to the city, your smart device will show approx. 15,000 steps.

A DAY IN NARVA FOR A HISTORY BUFF

At 10:00 in the morning or later: visit the Narva Museum. This is no ordinary city museum. The castle itself is a "frame" for the exposition, a part of it. The museum is also exciting for children. The cartoon about the history of Narva will not leave anyone without a smile on their face.

After visiting the museum, you definitely deserve a good lunch, whether it is in the restaurant M. Chagall, our small cafe Bublik on Puškini Street, the bright cafe Valge Kõrvits (White Pumpkin) on Lavretsovi Street, or cafe Muna in Narva College.

In the afternoon we invite you to Visit Narva Town Hall with its virtual exhibition

"New Life of Old Narva". Then go to the Old Town the Dark Garden, and the promenade. Walk along Rütli Street and imagine what it would be like for a piece of Old Town to be restored.

If you still have energy, take a 45-minute tour of the Victoria bastion casemates. You will not regret it. If there are art lovers among you, our art gallery on the edge of the old town is a must.

In the evening the riverboat Caroline leaves for Narva-Jõesuu. The ride lasts a little over an hour. Be sure to enjoy the view of the Narva River's delta.

Once the riverboat reaches Narva-Jõesuu, you can go directly to restaurant Franzia to share your impressions of an eventful day while enjoying its unforgettable lamprey dishes. You can go back to Narva by the shuttle bus, taxi or riverboat.
